“The Prophet and the Priest, Part 1”

Exodus 3:1-12, 4:13-17

1. In the sermon, we learned that:

The prophet represented _____ to the _____.

The priest represented the _____ to _____.

The _____ represented the nation and led it in its covenant relationship with God.

2. List some of your leaders from the highest levels of government down to your community, family, and personal life. Can you commit to praying over these throughout this week?

3. Has anyone been the voice of God to you lately whether they were aware of it or not?

4. Have you been able to speak a word from God to anyone recently, or is there someone with whom you are sensing an opportunity to do so?

5. To whom are you a leader? For whom are you responsible and/or who looks up to you?

6. Are there opportunities that you've missed to represent God to these people that you need to confess and repent? Receive God's forgiveness.

7. In what ways can you represent God to these people?
