Weekly Discussion Guide – 12-31-23

"On the Banks of Jordan" Joshua 3:9-17; 4:19-24; 5:8-12

<ol> <li>What is a transition you or your family have gone through within the last 12-18 months (e.g. wedding, divorce, job change, medical change, school change, someone moving in/out of your house)? Do you have any transitions you anticipate going through in the next 12-18 months?</li> <li>Pastor Hunter laid out three steps of transition: Leave, Go, Remember. Which on is hardest for you? Why?</li> <li>Is there an area of your life (work, church, family, etc.) in which you're still living in the past?</li> <li>Pastor Hunter said: "If we don't leave the past, then we can't celebrate what God is doing in the present." What are you trying to bring with you from the wilderness into the Promised Land? And how is it preventing you from experiencing what God wants to give you in the Promised Land?</li> </ol>		Josnua 3:9-17; 4:19-24; 5:8-12
<ul> <li>is hardest for you? Why?</li> <li>3. Is there an area of your life (work, church, family, etc.) in which you're still living in the past?</li> <li>4. Pastor Hunter said: "If we don't leave the past, then we can't celebrate what God is doing in the present." What are you trying to bring with you from the wilderness into the Promised Land? And how is it preventing you from</li> </ul>	1.	months (e.g. wedding, divorce, job change, medical change, school change, someone moving in/out of your house)? Do you have any transitions you
<ul> <li>in the past?</li> <li>4. Pastor Hunter said: "If we don't leave the past, then we can't celebrate what God is doing in the present." What are you trying to bring with you from the wilderness into the Promised Land? And how is it preventing you from</li> </ul>	2.	•
is doing in the present." What are you trying to bring with you from the wilderness into the Promised Land? And how is it preventing you from	3.
	4.	is doing in the present." What are you trying to bring with you from the wilderness into the Promised Land? And how is it preventing you from

5. Is there a memorial or remembrance you can "set up" to remind you of God's faithfulness in 2023 to give you confidence in Him during the hard times of 2024?