“What’s the Cost?”
1 Chronicles 22:14-26

1. What does your baptism mean to you? Has it taken on new meaning since the day you became baptized?
2. When you think about the cost of some of your more recurring sins, who typically bears the most burden for your sins?
3. Do you feel shame? What situations does the Accuser often use to shame you? What does he try to tell you about yourself that isn’t true?
4. What truths does God want to tell you about yourself?
5. If you were asked what the cost of following Jesus is, how would you answer?
6. How can you open yourself up to God’s sanctifying grace even more this week?
7. How can you remind yourself of the identity of “new creation” that God has made you to be?
