“Response-able”

John 10:10-18

1. List the things that are making this season new or different than previous seasons in your life.
2. What situations or experiences make you feel most reactive, like you are least able to respond in thoughtful and intentional ways?
3. Read John 10:10-18. What encourages you most about what kind of leader, lord, and savior Jesus offers to be for you?
4. What’s the difference between someone “taking from me” and “laying it down of my own accord”?
5. Now read Mark 11:11-21. How does the part about the fig tree help show that Jesus was not being reactionary in the Temple?
6. What would a practice of reflection look like for you in this season? (examples: a time of thinking back over your day with God before bed, in your car on the way to work, a prayerful journaling practice)
7. Can you think of a way you’ve reacted recently where you wish you had shown up differently? Reflect and rehearse how you would like to respond next time with the help of God.
