“Awaken Our Hearts”

2 Kings 22-23

1. Why do you think God prioritizes changing the heart first before moving to the home, the church, and then the world? Can you share an example where this order impacted your life or the lives of those around you?
2. In what areas of your home, church, and world do you see a need for awakening? How might God be wanting to awaken your heart to awaken those other spaces?
3. The sermon notes that Josiah repented not just for his sins but for the sins of those before him. How does the collective sin of society affect us personally? How can we participate in collective repentance and healing?
4. Read 2 Kings 23:14-20 to get a sense of the sort of societal awakening that occurred because of Josiah’s awakening. What stands out to you?
5. How do you understand the concept of “Cooperative Grace”? What role do you think we play in God’s work of awakening, and what practical steps can we take to open ourselves more fully to God’s grace?
6. What spiritual disciplines (prayer, Scripture reading, worship, etc.) help you stay open to God’s work in your life? How can these disciplines lead to personal and communal transformation?
7. How might God be inviting you to desire Him more?
