“An Undivided Heart”

Text: Psalm 86:8-13

1. How would you define integrity?
2. What is different between a wooden chair having integrity and a person having integrity? How is it the same?
3. Read Psalm 86:8-13. What word or phrase grabs your attention? What do you sense the Lord saying to you through that?
4. Compare verse 86:11 in several different translations. What do you think it means to have an “undivided heart” or a heart that needs to be “united”?
5. Have you ever felt like your heart was undivided? What was this like?
6. Take a few minutes to write out 3-5 core values or principles that are important to you that you want most to live by. (This can become a living list – you don’t have to get it right or complete the first time!)
7. In what ways is your life – your choices, behaviors, relationships, etc. – currently in line with these values/principles?
8. Can you identify anything that’s out of alignment? What steps can you take to bring your life back into alignment?
9. What is your biggest takeaway from this sermon series on “Faith With Feeling”? What will you do with it going forward?
