

A Letter from Your Senior Pastor...

You Don't Have to Walk Alone: Stephen Ministry Is Here for You

January is often thought of as a time of new beginnings. We turn the calendar page, set fresh goals, and hope that this year will be different – less burdensome, healthier, and more peaceful. And yet, for many, January can feel discouragingly heavy. The holidays are over. The distractions fade. The quiet settles in. And sometimes what we're left with is grief that hasn't gone away, anxiety that hasn't loosened its grip, or a situation that still feels overwhelming. A new year doesn't automatically erase old pain.

That's why we want to remind you of a quiet but powerful ministry in our church: Stephen Ministry. Stephen Ministry is a Christ-centered, confidential caregiving ministry for people who are going through difficult seasons of life. It is not counseling or therapy. Instead, it is one-to-one, lay shepherding care offered by trained members of our congregation who are willing to listen, pray, encourage, and walk with you for an extended season.

You might benefit from Stephen Ministry if you are:

- Experiencing grief after the loss of a loved one
- Walking through illness or caring for someone who is
- Navigating a difficult situation in your family
- Struggling with loneliness, stress, or anxiety
- Going through a major life transition
- Feeling spiritually dry, discouraged, or overwhelmed

Often, people hesitate to reach out because they think their situation isn't "serious enough," they don't want to be a burden, or it's simply hard to admit we could use help. But Scripture reminds us that bearing one another's burdens is part of the Christian life (Galatians 6:2). Stephen Ministry exists precisely for seasons when you need someone steady, faithful, and compassionate to walk alongside you.

Stephen Ministers are carefully selected, trained, and supported. They are committed to confidentiality. They are not there to "fix" you or rush you through your struggle. Their role is to be a tangible expression of Christ's care offering presence, prayer, Scripture, and hope over time. Just as importantly, Stephen Ministry is for this moment, not just for the initial moments of crisis. Sometimes the hardest seasons are the ones that don't have a clear ending or an obvious label. If life feels heavy, confusing, or simply exhausting, you are not alone, and you don't have to pretend that everything is fine.

As we begin a new year, we want to be a church that is honest about life, struggle, and grace. We believe God often meets us through the faithful presence of others. Stephen Ministry is one of the ways our church embodies this truth. If you or someone you know might benefit from a Stephen Minister, we encourage you to reach out to a pastor, take a Stephen Ministry info card from the Resource Center outside the Worship Center, or go to the church office for an application to receive care. Asking for help is an act of wisdom, honesty, and courage.

This year, let it be said of Mulder Church that we are a place where no one has to walk alone.

Grace and peace,

Pastor Jonathan
